

Healing Waters Will Flow to Those in Great Need

Local area businesses and individuals, including Billiou's, have donated more than $1 million for the renovation and expansion of the Roger S. Good Cancer Treatment Center at Sierra View District Hospital.

During the groundbreaking ceremony held April 29th, officials discussed the project, which will be adjacent to the present cancer center on the hospital's south side.

"We went over the $1 million mark today, just minutes before this groundbreaking ceremony was to begin," said Jackie Witzel, co-chair of the Sierra View District Hospital Foundation's major-gift division.

"Our goal is $1.5 million, with the hospital contributing $2 million toward the project," said Lucie Garcia, hospital community relations director.

Construction of the $3.5 million project will expand the center from 4,800 square feet to more than 9,000 square feet. Renovations and expansion will include state-of-the-art radiation therapy equipment for greater patient comfort and more precise treatment.

Greater space will provide more patients with privacy, confidentiality and options of either quiet time or television during treatments. The addition will also provide seating for relatives, a central nurses station, a cancer education and prevention community resource center and a healing garden for quiet reflection.

Mildred Billiou, widow of Lawrence Billiou, points to the location of the memorial fountain to be built in the healing garden.

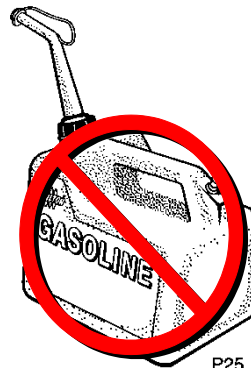

Billiou's has donated one of two fountains that will be included in the healing garden in the hopes that those receiving treatment and their attending families may find comfort.

The fountain will be dedicated to Lawrence and Jeanne Billiou, the founders of Billiou's, both of whom lost their battles with cancer.

Chilton Stops Making Gas Cans

Western Industries, the parent company of Chilton Products, has announced their decision to immediately exit the fuel container business, citing that after a lengthy and detailed evaluation they have determined that fuel containers do not fit their strategic growth plans.

For those of you selling Chilton Gas Cans, we have a bit of remaining stock on hand that we anticipate will move rather quickly. If you want these before they become extinct, better move fast!

Humor Is, As Humor Does

A mother enters her daughter's bedroom and sees a letter on the bed. With the worst premonition, she reads it, hands trembling,

Dear Mother,

It is with great regret and sorrow that I'm telling you I have eloped with my new boyfriend. I know how upset you will be but I am truly happy. I have found real passion and he is so nice, with all his piercings and tattoos and his big motorcycle.

But it's not only that. Mom, I'm pregnant. And Joe said that we will be very happy in his trailer in the woods. He wants to have many more children with me — and that's one of my biggest dreams.

I've learned that marijuana doesn't hurt anyone, and we'll be growing it to sell to support ourselves and our children. In the meantime, we'll pray for science to find the AIDS cure so Joe can get better. He deserves it.

Don't worry Mom, I'm 15 years old now, and I know how to take care of myself. Someday I'll visit, for

I know you will want to get to know your grandchildren.

*Your daughter,
Judith*

PS: Mom, it's not true. I'm over at Courtney's house. I just wanted to show you there are worse things in life than the school report card that's in my desk drawer.

I love you! Judith
